

Registering for the CUNY Academic Commons

CUNY Academic Commons Quick Guides

You must sign-up and register for the Commons to join your course group or site. You must use your CUNY email to join but this can be changed in your profile later (see below).

To join the CUNY Academic Commons:

1. Head to the CUNY Academic Commons: <https://commons.gc.cuny.edu/>
2. Click “Register” in the top right corner.
3. Create a Username that is suitable for your course. If you are taking a course, you can use your first name and last initial or, your professor may provide directions.
4. Use your CUNY email address to register.
5. Enter your full name. You can make this private in your profile “display name” later.
6. Please choose your CUNY College so we know which CUNY campuses are using the Commons!
7. Agree to the Terms of Service. Don’t worry, we don’t collect data on you and you retain the rights to any content you create on the CUNY Commons.
8. Check your CUNY Email address to confirm your account. Once you click the link, the registration process is complete. Return to the Commons to log in.

You’re done! Now that you have registered for the CUNY Academic Commons, you can edit your profile, search for your course, browse activity across the network, and create your own groups and sites.
